

Amendment and Transition (Articles 17-19)

Article 17 - Constitutional Amendments

Amendments to the Constitution require a two-thirds majority in both Houses.

No amendment may abrogate the core democratic principles or fundamental rights which the State is built on.

Article 18 - Continuity of Laws

All existing laws not consistent with the Constitution shall remain in effect until amended or repealed by Parliament.

Article 19 - Election & Reset

Once this constitution has been enacted a General Election is to be triggered and all positions of Parliament, Government and Judiciary are to be reset.

Revision #1

Created 12 May 2025 17:00:28 by cloud_yy

Updated 12 May 2025 17:01:40 by cloud_yy